
FAUST CLOSES WITH A WEEK OF SOLD OUT HOUSES!

October 24, 2015 marked the end of a 21 month journey to create a new, exciting adaptation of Faust. The Drama Club, its founders Jeffrey Schmidt and Lydia Mackay along with Michael Federico can't thank everyone enough for their encouragement. The production received strong popular and critical support. "The future of theater in Dallas should be what The Drama Club is doing with Faust." says Elaine Liner with the Dallas Observer. The future is where TDC is looking. Stay tuned to find out what happens with Faust and what TDC will be doing next. An announcement will be made soon about the upcoming project.

Saturday's final show concluded with a costume dance party. Enjoy some pics!

